

Search

The Search function in BrightWork 365 is used to filter a data source by finding records that contain a specified text string within one or more designated columns. It is case-insensitive and returns a table of matching records.

For more information see the Microsoft Search help article.

---