Appointment

When creating a new Appointment the Quick Create form will display with relevant fields. If the creator's email and calendar are configured properly, an invite will be sent to the Attendees, and the appointment will be added to the creator's calendar and displayed as 'Free' by default.

The Appointment Related tab provides access the Audit History of the Appointment item. The Audit History provides data change details including the change date, user who made the change, the changed field, and the old and new values. Appointments can be set as a Microsoft Teams meeting. If your organization is not yet configured to work with Teams, see Microsoft Teams.

Email

The new email screen presents the typical email fields such as To, CC, Subject, and email body. If the email creator's email is configured properly, an email will be sent to the addressees and a copy of the email will be saved in the Communications item record.

Phone Call

The Phone Call function provides a way to capture details about a call that was initiated outside the system. The details will be saved as part of the Communication record.

The Phone Call Related tab provides access the Audit History of the Appointment item. The Audit History provides data change details including the change date, user who made the change, the changed field, and the old and new values.

Note

You can create a note with a title, note body (with formatting), and attachments and save the note as part of the Communications record. Information about the note includes its Modified time, which reflects anything that changes the contents of any column in the record, including system columns.

OneNote

In addition to the standard note mentioned above, you also have the option to create Microsoft OneNote notes that are saved as part of an associated OneNote notebook. To access the OneNote notebook after it's created, you can either click on the OneNote link displayed when you click the + sign in the Communications module:
